Salal and Cedar's Sacred Earth Camp

Laurel Dykstra's Salal and Cedar Watershed Discipleship Community ministry is doing an online fundraiser for their summer youth program. Here's a message from Laura:

Announcing a fund raising campaign for Sacred Earth Camp a two week environmental justice leadership program for youth lead by Salal and Cedar Watershed Discipleship Community and hosted at Brooksdale Farm, A Rocha, in Surrey.

Sacred Earth Camp will ground indigenous, settler and immigrant youth and young adults in the eco-justice issues of our bio-region, equip them with practical skills for effective change, and nurture spiritual practices for the long haul. All with generous helpings of community, music, laughter, and fun.

The goal is to raise $10,000 for scholarships, program and staff.
